Day 4: Optional day tour

On this day, you will have 3 different options, you can choose one of the below sites to visit based on your preference:

- Immerse yourself in the rich history and archaeological wonders of Takht-e Suleiman, an ancient site nestled in Azerbaijan province. Takht-e Suleiman, also known as the Throne of Solomon, is steeped in myth and legend, believed to have been a sacred site dating back to prehistoric times. The centerpiece of this archaeological complex is the imposing citadel, which served as a Zoroastrian fire temple during the Sasanian era. Explore the ruins of the temple complex, surrounded by majestic mountains and lush greenery, and marvel at the intricate carvings and architectural details that offer insights into the region's past. Experience the spiritual ambiance of this UNESCO World Heritage Site as you wander through its sacred grounds and contemplate its significance in ancient Persian culture and mythology.

- Embark on a day trip from Tabriz to explore Kaleybar and Babak Castle. Departing early, enjoy a scenic drive to Kaleybar, a town steeped in history. Discover Babak Castle, an ancient fortress nestled in the Aras Baran forests, offering stunning views. Indulge in a traditional Azerbaijani lunch before returning to Tabriz in the late afternoon. Join us for a day of adventure and cultural exploration in Azerbaijan province.
- Discover the captivating beauty and religious heritage of Jolfa, a historic district in Azerbaijan province. Jolfa is renowned for its collection of ancient Armenian churches, which date back centuries and showcase exquisite architectural craftsmanship. Among the most famous is the UNESCO-listed Saint Thaddeus Monastery, also known as the Black Church, revered as one of the oldest Christian monasteries in the world. Another notable landmark is the Saint Stepanos Monastery, perched on a rocky cliff overlooking the Aras River, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. Explore the rich cultural tapestry of Jolfa as you wander through its picturesque streets and visit these iconic religious sites, each steeped in centuries of history and tradition.
