Day 1: Bushehr

Arrive in Bushehr in the afternoon and check in to your cozy local guesthouse. After a little rest, we head straight to the coast to catch the magical sunset over the Persian Gulf, the sky turns pink and gold while fishing boats slowly come home. Then, we wander through the old alleys, known as Koocheh Saaz, where music sometimes drifts from hidden courtyards. Tonight, a local family invites us into their home for a simple, delicious dinner and a warm cup of tea in their open-air yard. We end the night with a special Khayyam poetry reading under the stars, a peaceful moment to feel the spirit of Bushehr.

Day 2: Bushehr

After breakfast and a free morning to relax or stroll by the port, the adventure begins again as the sun goes down. We join a small workshop to meet local musicians and learn about Bushehr's famous instruments, like the Damam and Ney Anban. If you feel brave, try drumming along! Later, we enjoy an intimate live performance by a local band playing traditional rhythms that make you want to tap your feet. We taste local snacks, sweet dates, herbal tea, and warm bread, then walk through the old neighborhood listening to a local elder share stories about Bushehr's past and its deep connection with the sea. By midnight, the alleys feel like a living museum full of secrets.

Day 3: Bushehr

Sleep in a bit and enjoy lunch at a seaside café, then rest before our last magical night. As evening falls, we head to a quiet spot by the sea to watch the moonlight dance on the water. A small picnic of local treats keeps us company. Next, we visit a small workshop where you can see how traditional instruments are made, maybe even try to craft a simple beat on a Damam yourself. We close this journey with one last walk through Bushehr's old quarter, sipping tea under the stars, surrounded by warm smiles and the soft hum of night.
