Detailed Itinerary:

Day 1 – Tehran Arrival

Arrive in Tehran and check into your hotel. In the evening, walk through old Tehran streets where the light glows warmly on brick walls and traditional shops. End the day with a welcome dinner of Persian flavors.

Day 2 – Tehran → Kashan

Travel to Kashan. At sunrise, the historic Fin Garden comes alive with morning mist, water channels, and birdsong. In the afternoon, visit old merchant houses with stained glass windows. At sunset, climb to the rooftops of the old town to see the desert horizon turn pink and orange.

Day 3 – Kashan → Abyaneh → Isfahan

Wake up early to capture Abyaneh Village, with its red mud-brick houses glowing under the morning sun. Drive towards Isfahan. By evening, step into Naqsh-e Jahan Square – one of the largest squares in the world – and watch the golden light reflect on turquoise domes and minarets.

Day 4 – Isfahan

Start the day at Si-o-se-pol Bridge, where the sunrise reflects on the river arches. Explore the mosques with their blue tiles shining in soft daylight. Relax in a bazaar full of carpets, handicrafts, and the smell of saffron. End the day with a rooftop sunset overlooking Isfahan's skyline.

Day 5 – Isfahan → Yazd

Drive across the desert. Stop to watch the sunrise over endless sand plains – silence, colors, and shadows changing every minute. Arrive in Yazd in the afternoon. In the evening, join locals at Amir Chakhmaq Square as the sunset lights the windcatchers. Later, enjoy a desert campfire under a sky full of stars.

Day 6 – Yazd → Shiraz

At dawn, climb to the Tower of Silence, an ancient Zoroastrian site, and watch the sun rise over the city. Drive to Shiraz, the city of poetry and gardens. By evening, visit Eram Garden or Quran Gate to see the sunset over cypress trees and mountains.

Day 7 – Shiraz

Begin with the most magical moment: sunrise inside the Pink Mosque (Nasir al-Mulk). As light shines through colorful stained glass, the floor becomes a rainbow of colors. Later, explore Vakil Bazaar, full of spices and Persian crafts. End with a farewell dinner in a traditional Shirazi restaurant before your transfer to the airport.
