Detailed Itinerary:

Day 1: Tehran

Your journey begins in Shiraz, one of the most welcoming cities in Iran. After arrival, you start a gentle city tour to feel the rhythm of the city. You walk through elegant gardens where the air smells of flowers and fresh water. In traditional streets and bazaars, colors, sounds, and friendly smiles surround you. Shiraz feels calm, poetic, and alive at the same time—a perfect first step into Iran.

Day 2: Tehran-Mashhad

On the second day, you dive deeper into history. After exploring more of Shiraz, you travel to Persepolis, the great ceremonial capital of ancient Persia. Massive stone columns rise into the sky, and detailed carvings tell stories from over 2,500 years ago. You feel the cool stone under your hand and the quiet power of the place around you. This day connects you directly to the roots of Iran's civilization.

Day 3: Mashhad-Tehran

Today, the journey changes direction. You fly from Shiraz to Bandar Abbas and then continue to Qeshm Island. The weather becomes warmer, the light brighter, and the pace slower. After arrival, the island welcomes you with sea air and open landscapes. Life here moves differently—simple, coastal, and relaxed. It is the perfect transition from history to nature.

Day 4: Tehran-Qom

This day is dedicated to Qeshm, the largest island in Iran. You explore natural landscapes shaped by wind and water, quiet villages, and coastal views that stretch far into the horizon. The sound of waves stays with you throughout the day. Fresh local food, seafood flavors, and warm bread create a strong sensory experience. Qeshm is raw, peaceful, and deeply authentic.

Day 5: Qom

On day five, you travel to Hormuz Island, one of the most unique places in Iran. The island is famous for its red soil and colorful mountains. Every view feels artistic, almost unreal. You walk on soft beaches, feel the warm sun, and see colors you rarely find anywhere else. Hormuz is small, quiet, and unforgettable—a dream place for photos and slow moments.

Day 6: Depart

Your journey comes to a gentle end. You return from Hormuz to Bandar Abbas and take your flight back. In just a few days, you have experienced ancient ruins, poetic cities, southern islands, and the calm rhythm of the sea. This short Iran journey leaves you relaxed, inspired, and full of memories.
